

Categorization as A Professional Client (Per Se/Elective)

By signing/ticking the check-box you acknowledge your acceptance to be categorized as a per se Professional Client [Elective Professional]. Please note that the Notice Letter together with the Terms of Business constitute as legally binding terms that will apply to any business which we conduct with you or on your behalf, subject to any amendments which we will notify you with or which may be agreed upon. They supersede any previous agreement between us.

From:

To: XNT LTD.

With reference to your Notice Letter and having read and understood the consequences of the investor protections and compensation rights that will be lost as a result of classification as a per se Professional Client / Elective Professional Client (as applicable) as set out in the Notice Letter and overview of Business Conduct, we confirm being aware of the consequences of losing such protection.

I/the Company undertake to inform you of any changes that could affect my/our categorization as a per se Professional Client/ Elective Professional Client, and the responsibility to ask you for a higher level of protection where a situation arises that would present an inability to properly assess or manage the risks involved.

I/the Company make these statements out of my/our own free will and have not been induced or placed under duress to make said statements. As a result I/the Company request and agree to be categorized as a per se Professional Client/ Elective Professional Client for the purposes of the Malta Financial Services Authorities' Regulatory Regime in relation to Services described in the Notice Letter.

Where we are introduced to XNT LTD by a third party introducer (the "Introducer"), we expressly consent to sharing of our personal data with such Introducer for the purposes of managing our and XNT LTD's relationship with the Introducer including the payment of inducements. We further consent and acknowledge that where the Introducer is based outside the European Union this means that our personal data is being transferred outside the European Union to a country that might not have data protection rules and consequential protections that are equivalent to those in the European Union.

By pressing “Yes, I agree” button I, , understand that I/the Company have accepted that XNT LTD. categorizes me/us as per se Professional Client/ Elective Professional Client as applicable.
