

Terms and conditions

Nordic Trading Competition – 19/11/2019

1. Registration and Terms

1.1. Preliminary registration is a must for every contestant.

1.2. Only students are allowed to participate.

1.3. Registration is held via specially created Online-form only, requiring university, name, surname, email, contact phone - seen on the special landing page issued by Exante. After the registration, a contestant is welcomed to open a demo account to be prepared for the competition. The contestant receives standard access to the client’s area of the Exante account. Exante representative marks the opened account with a unique tag (‘nordic_2019’).

1.4. Each contestant receives 100,000 EUR as an initial demo-account deposit by the start of the competition.

1.5. If the contestant loses the password, it can be reset using the following link.

1.6. The rules described in this document must be learned and followed. Unfamiliarity with the rules will not be considered as a reasonable explanation of their violation.

1.9. Participating universities are obliged to support the event with relevant representation on their regular published editions and social media and to the local financial and technology media sources.

2. Contest Guidelines

2.1. The Competition is held on November 19. The outline of the competition is provided in Table 1:

Table 1. Competition outline

	Start	Finish
Registration	November 11, 2019 – 09:00 (GMT +2)	November 17, 2019 – 23:59 (GMT +2)

Competition day	November 19, 2019 – 09:00 (GMT+2)	November 19, 2019 – 16:00 (GMT+2)
Results ceremony (Live-online meeting)	November 20, 2019 – 19:00 (GMT+2)	-

2.1.1. Contestants receive access to all instruments available on basic Exante Demo accounts!

2.2. Keep in mind that all the trades made after the time set as the ending of each League will not be counted, when calculating the results.

2.3. Only virtual money received by the contestant with the start of the contest can be used to form a portfolio.

2.3.1. Contestants do not have the right to consult Exante Support team or any other authority within the company regarding the contest issues. However, the problems of technical character can be solved via support@exante.eu (sha@exante.eu should be added in CC) with the statement about involvement in the event.

2.4. The contestants must only use Exante products to participate in the contest: Web, mobile or desktop version of the platform, all available in the Client's area.

2.5. All the commissions and leverage for the instruments are described in the desktop version of the platform (using module 'Instrument info').

2.6. Disqualification policy:

2.6.1. Any activity using delay gap to gain profit is forbidden.

2.6.2. Accounts having a high rate of simultaneous/similar activities may be disqualified for the violation of the rule of independence of the trading success of the account.

2.6.3. Exante is checking each account's history in order to prevent all the unfair actions that might be used in order to lead the contest. A contestant undertaking any of those forbidden actions is disqualified from the competition without any exceptions.

2.6.4. A person disqualified from the contest can not take part in the competition. Disqualification is not subject to appeal.

2.7. Contest participants are not allowed to deposit their Demo trading account (add additional web-currency for trading).

3. Determining the Winners

3.1. The contest ends at the set date and time, regardless of the amount of the open positions.

3.2. Final results of the competition are disclaimed on a special ceremony, on the day after the competition.

3.3. The winner of the League is determined by NAV growth.

3.4. Exante publishes results of the competition on the next day after its end.

3.5. Results published are subject to appeal with a reasonable ground within 3 working days after the end of the contest.

3.6. Prizes and certificates should be provided to the winners within 14 days after the competition has ended. In case a prize has not been received by the winner within the specified timeframe without notice from Exante side, the contestant has the right to contact Exante (sha@exante.eu) questioning the reasons for the missing prizes.

4. Prizes

4.1. With regards to the list of attendance of the contest, all the contestants receive the awards from Exante brand. 3 positions that scored the highest points by mentioned in paragraph 3.3 criteria receive special valuable prizes.

4.2. Winners of the contest are welcomed and obligated to participate in Exante promotional events, interviews, news articles and social media, without mentioning any sensitive personal data.

4.3. The winners, leaders and active participants of the Nordic trading competition – 2019 (all Leagues) receive the honourable right to represent their universities in future competitions hosted by Exante in 2019-2020.

5. Changes to the Contest Rules

5.1. Nordic trading competition saves the right to change the rules of the contest, including the process of the winner's selection, list of instruments offered, dates and time of the contest in case of emergencies with the provision of the reasonable explanation and public apology to all the participants.

5.1.1. In case of any changes and additions to the Rules of the Competition, the organizers promptly inform all the participants of the Competition about the changes that have occurred via email; Edited Terms and Conditions are published on Exante official landing page of the event.

5.2. The presented Terms and Conditions may be extended with any necessary explanatory documents.

5.3. The results published are not subject to revision after the time provided for the appeal expires.

5.4. All the complaints regarding Contest Rules and Progress are received and reviewed via sha@exante.eu only.